GROWING YOUR RELATIONSHIPS THROUGH BETTER COMMUNICATION—Saturday, Apr. 15, 9 am-8:00 pm

Communication is vital to all relationships. It enables us to share feelings, expectations, and opinions so that we can develop true intimacy with others. Unfortunately, an inability to communicate well ourselves or to interpret others' communication accurately often leads to difficulties in friendships, marriage, families, and on the job. Invest in the relationships that matter to you by spending a day learning to improve both your ability to understand others and to be understood. To register or for more information, call or text BHSSM at 605-431-5264.

3.26.23 | THE COMEBACK, Part 7: When You Are Coming Back

HOW DOES GOD RESPOND WHEN WE MESS UP?

Later, Jesus appeared once again to a group of his disciples by Lake Galilee. ...Peter told them, "I'm going fishing." And they all replied, "We'll go with you." So they went out and fished through the night, but caught nothing. John 21:1, 3 TPT

Some of us try to distance ourselves from things that happened by pinball-ing between _____ and _____.

We all have _____ in people's lives.

(4) Then at dawn, Jesus was standing there on the shore, but the disciples didn't realize that it was him! He called out to them, saying, "Hey guys! Did you catch any fish?"

(5) "Not a thing," they replied. Jesus shouted to them, "Throw your net over the starboard side, and you'll catch some!" And so they did as he said, and they caught so many fish they couldn't even pull in the net!

(7) Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!" When Peter heard him say that, he quickly wrapped his outer garment around him, and because he was athletic, he dove right into the lake to go to Jesus! The other disciples then brought the boat to shore, dragging their catch of fish. They weren't far from land, only about a hundred meters. And when they got to shore, they noticed a charcoal fire with some roasted fish and bread. Then Jesus said, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Peter waded into the water and helped pull the net to shore. It was full of many large fish, exactly one hundred and fifty-three, but even with so many fish, the net was not torn.

(12) "Come, let's have some breakfast," Jesus said to them. And not one of the disciples needed to ask who it was, because every one of them knew it was the Lord. Then Jesus came close to them and served them the bread and the fish. This was the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after his resurrection.

(15) After they had breakfast, Jesus said to Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you burn with love for me more than these?" Peter answered, "Yes, Lord! You know that I have great affection for you!" "Then take care of my lambs," Jesus said. Jesus repeated his question the second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you burn with love for me?" Peter answered, "Yes, my Lord! You know that I have great affection for you!" "Then take care of my sheep," Jesus said. Then Jesus asked him again, "Peter, son of Jonah, do you have great affection for me?" Peter was saddened by being asked the third time and said, "My Lord, you know everything. You know that I burn with love for you!" Jesus replied, "Then feed my lambs! Peter, listen, when you were younger you made your own choices and you went where you pleased. But one day when you are old, others will tie you up and escort you where you would not choose to go—and you will spread out your arms." (Jesus said this to Peter as a prophecy of what kind of death he would die, for the glory of God.) And then he said, "Peter, follow me!"

(20) Then Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. (This was the disciple who sat close to Jesus at the Last Supper and had asked him, "Lord, who is the one that will betray you?") So when Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, "What's going to happen to him?" Jesus replied, "If I decide to let him live until I return, what concern is that of yours? You must still keep on following me!" John 21:4-22 TPT

USING FISH TO CATCH A FISHERMAN'S COMEBACK

- Jesus used a moment of connection to let Peter know that "You are _____!"
- Stop running _____ from God and start moving _____ Him.
- If Jesus wanted to shame Peter, He would focus _____; instead, He focuses _____.
- Jesus will not put His hands on your wounds to _____ you; He will do it in order to _____ you.
- Jesus didn't dismiss Peter's sin; He _____ the price for His sin.
